

Keystone Coaching Network for Pastors

Andy Haskins and Chris Hill - Coach/facilitators

The NER Coaching Network is a relationship based coaching network for pastors seeking to break through growth barriers and desiring to learn about church systems in order to better achieve the following 8 expected outcomes.

- Every local church a worshipping community.
- Every local church an enfolding congregation producing disciplined, growing holy people.
- Every local church a reproducing congregation.
- Every local church regularly reaching the lost for Jesus Christ.
- Every local church engaged in our world missionary movement.
- Every local church ministering to the poor and disenfranchised.
- Every church bringing structures into the service of its mission.

Andy Haskins, NERRegion Director of Church Development and Chris Hill, will lead the Keystone/NER Coaching Network.

- Coaching Network consists of 10 to 15 approved pastors.
- Each pastor commits to monthly training at a central location from 9am - 2pm which will be determined based on registrations.

Cost: $75 per month or $520 if paid in advance

Semesters run for 8 months, the first semester beginning in October 2011

Scholarships are available by contacting MEG Board Chairperson Scholarship applications can be downloaded at www.nerfmc.com

All accepted participants are expected to pay for the full semester even if they miss a session. Pastors from any church or denomination are welcome.

In order to be eligible, you must:

1. Be the pastor of a church with a strong desire and commitment to personal growth.
2. Agree to attend all eight of the coaching sessions (unless arrangements are made ahead of time) on the following dates:

October 15; November 19; December 17; January 21; February 18;
March 17; April 21; May 19.

3. Be willing to coach and assist other pastors in the future if called upon.
4. Read the book for each monthly topic and write up top three things you learned from your reading. Cost of books is included in registration fee.
